

Attention FDA

5726 '00 MAR 22, AIO:39

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

I've been more than satisfied in my mail order hearing aids.

The doctors already have too much power.

Please let ~~me~~ continue to have the right to get our hearing aids as we wish.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

*Getting hearing aids is no life + death issue.
So lets just leave good enough alone.*

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Absolutely
